Personal Mention.

Rev. J. Kalino of Paia was a visitor in Wailuku on Thursday.

Col. W. H. Cornwell leaves for Honolulu by this afternoon's Claudine.

School Inspector King will spend next week visiting the school of East Maui.

Labor Commissioner Frank Sargent left for the coast by Tuesday's Ventura.

Herbert M. Ayers, the newspaper man, leaves for China shortly to accept an important position.

George Keeney, head accountant at Puunene, was invalided this week, but is recovering sufficiently to be out again.

Mr. F. H. Hayselden and family and Mr. L. M. Vetlesen and family came over from Honolulu by Tuesday's Kinau.

Capt. W. E. Bal of Co. I. N. G. H. is planning to take his company to Honolulu if possible, during grand encampment.

Dr. O. E. Wall arrived by the Claudine from Hana this morning. He will open an office for a few days at the Maui Hotel.

Mr. C. D. Lewis of Lovejoy & Co. paid a long promised visit to Wailuku this week, and leaves for Honolulu this afternoon.

Attorney John Richardson of Lahaina was called to Wailuku early last Monday morning on professional business, and was detained here for several days.

Mr. James Bergstrom, of the Bergstrom Music Co. Honolulu, came over by Wednesday's Claudine, to repair the church organ at the Foreign Church, Paia.

W. W. Westcott of Puunene who has been nursing a pet case of dengue for a couple of weeks, left for Lahaina on Thursday, but looks for himself back in time to see tomorrow's game.

Mr. S. A. D. Jones of the Germania Life came over on Wednesday, to visit the local agents of the company on Maui. Cashier C. D. Lufkin of the First National Bank of Wailuku represents the Company in Wailuku.

J. Jorgenson of Keanae, prominent in the construction of the big Puunene ditch, who has been under the weather for some time, came out on horseback on Tuesday, and left on Wednesday's Nebraskan for a short vacation in Honolulu.

Tom Pickard, the famous "first base," came over from Kahoolawe this week to do a stunt with the Morning Stars tomorrow. Tom states that there are about 7000 sheep pastured on the island and that fishing is fine off the west coast.

MARRIED

NUA—AULD—At the residence of the bride at Wailuku, Maui, May 20, 1903, by Rev. J. Kalino of Paia; Rev. J. Nua and Mrs. Poni Auld, both of Wailuku.

DIED

HAYSELDEN—At the Hawaiian Hotel, Honolulu, Saturday, May 16, 1903, Mrs. Talula Hayselden, wife of Frederic H. Hayselden, of Lahaina, Maui.

On Tuesday of this week, the sad news of the death of Mrs. Hayselden reached Maui. She had been in feeble health for some time, but it was only last week that her symptoms became alarming, and her immediate family were summoned to Honolulu, all reaching there in time to receive her last loving glance.

As a wife and as a mother, Mrs. Hayselden was of that high and self sacrificing type which adds to noble womanhood its brightest crown and luster. Broadly generous in her instincts she endeared herself to all who knew her, and especially to those who knew what her help and presence meant in their hours of trouble. Her loss will be a sad blow to her friends, notably among the Hawaiians who ever entertained a loyal and affectionate aloha for her.

Mrs. Hayselden was the only daughter of the late Walter Murray Gibson, a premier of the Hawaiian Islands during the reign of Kalakaua. She was born in Georgia in 1849, and came to the Hawaiian Islands with her father in 1862, and has resided mostly in Lahaina and on Lanai. She was married to Mr. Hayselden in 1874. She leaves a husband and five children; three sons and two daughters to mourn her loss.

SHIPPING NEWS

Manila, P. I., May 20.—The cable ship Colonia has started the work of laying the Pacific cable to Guam. The ship arrived a few days ago and is now well on its way laying the first link which is to connect Manila with Guam. The Anglia will soon start out with the remainder of the cable, which is expected to be laid to Honolulu by the first of July.

Officers of the Yorktown state that the gunboat Princeton will not touch at Honolulu on her way to the mainland from Yokohama. It was the purpose of her commander to take her far up to the northward, using her sails as much as possible, and go direct to Bremerton, whence she will sail for Mare Island.—Advertiser.

Immigration Commissioner Sargent will leave for Washington in the Ventura. His plan is to proceed from San Francisco to such places in the north as Tacoma and Seattle, going finally to Vancouver to take the Canadian Pacific railway to Washington, at which place he will arrive on the 15th of June.

Sir Thomas Lipton evidently values the Shamrock III more highly than either of her predecessors of the same name. The previous Shamrocks were insured for $60,000 each, but the latest challenger has been underwritten at $100,000. Of course these amounts are far below the value of the yachts.

Lieutenant E. H. Shackleton recently returned from the Antarctic expedition ship Discovery, which is at present far south in the Antarctic ice. Lieutenant Shackleton returned to Lyttleton in the relief ship which arrived there a few months ago.

The trim little gunboat Yorktown, flying a homeward bound pennant, reached Honolulu last Sunday, from Yokohama. She will remain in port a week, put on a new coat of white paint, take on 250 tons of coal, and then leave for home.

Vancouver, May 18.—Alley & Co., of Tacoma, will operate a line of steamers between the Sound and Australia.

Two coast mails were due in Honolulu this week, the Sonoma on Wednesday and the Nippon Maru today.

Bremerton, May 16.—The United States Battleship Wisconsin sailed for Honolulu today.

The Iroquois is about ready to leave Honolulu for Midway Island.
